Prayers of the People

Pondering the two great commandments of the law, let us pray together, saying: O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

That the church throughout the world may love you with all its heart and soul and mind, and may exemplify your love in all of life, O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

That our country, in all its foreign and domestic policies, may care for aliens and immigrants, the indigent and the oppressed, all victims of economic exploitation, and all poorer and smaller nations, O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

That like the Thessalonians, our parish community may live in the faith and joy of the Holy Spirit, O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

That the wealth of our land may enable us to live in just stewardship of the earth's goods, in care for our natural resources, and in compassion for the needy, O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

That our sick and shut-ins experience your healing power of love...for all suffering with chronic pain... for all caregivers who witness suffering...O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

Blessed are those who have fought the good fight and now share in the wondrous vision God promised from the beginning...May we keep them always in our sight, eager for the day of our joyous reunion, O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

Almighty God, whose will it is that all should come to you through your Son, Jesus Christ: Inspire our witness to him, that all may know the power of his forgiveness and the hope of his resurrection; O Lord of love; hear our prayer.

The celebrant adds the concluding collect.
O God, you care for the widow and the orphan, and you hear the cry of the poor. Listen also to our cry; change our hearts of stone into hearts of flesh in which to love you in truth and for your sake to show compassion on all your creatures. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
