Prayers of the People

Jesus calls us to give up our lives for others. That we may have the faith to live as Jesus did, let us pray for all in need, saying: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

O gracious God, you have given up your very self to save the world. That we may be empowered to give up ourselves for one another, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

You have made your people equal and free in the baptism of your Son. That we may live joyfully in this new way, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

You call us to take up our cross and follow the way of Christ. That we may serve one another and lie in obedience to your word, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

You show to us all the poor and the needy, all the homeless and the hungry. That we may lighten their load by taking it upon ourselves, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

You give us enough that we may share with the needy. That we and all institutions of relief may be insistent in our care for others, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

That all in need, especially our sick and those seeking guidance may receive God's mercy... we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

You have surrounded us with saints of every time and place. That we may follow them as they followed Christ on the way to the cross, we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

We pray for all who have died...for those who died alone...for those we miss each day and for all who grieve the loss of someone dear to them... we pray: Send us your Spirit, O Lord.

The Celebrant adds the following collect:

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So clothe us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name, Amen.
