Prayers of the People

Christ calls us to a life of peace and humility. Let us pray for strength to live this baptized life, saying: Lord, have mercy.

For all the baptized people of God, that having been called by our Lord we may gladly wait on those in need, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all in authority in nation and church, that they may learn humility, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all countries at war, that the peace of Christ may come among them, and for all who suffer the ravages of wartime, that they may find comfort and refuge, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all who minister in this and in every Christian community, that they may find strength for their tasks, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all children, that they may be fed and housed and may grow with self-confidence and joy, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For our the sick and suffering... for those who minister to the needs of others...for all who have asked for our prayers... let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all the saints who have willingly served others, we praise our Servant God. That we may join them in a life of service, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

The celebrant adds the concluding collect:

Receive us, O God, as you received the child in Capernaum, for we yearn for your mercy, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

New Ministry Resource

The Episcopal Housing Ministry, which we have supported in the past, recently divested some of its assets. This means that St. Andrews was blessed with $300,000 earmarked for ministries to housing insecure people. This is a huge opportunity for our church. Your vestry, leadership and finance team have already invested the bulk of that money while we are discerning the best way to leverage those funds for the good of the community.

Blessing of the Animals Saturday, October 5, 10am

Bring your furry friends or favorite stuffed animals and meet us outside the front doors of the church for a special blessing!

Oktoberfest October 18th at 6pm

Join us out on the side lawn for food and fun. Smore's will be included by the fire pit! Invite family and friends to celebrate our mission of welcoming all to our church for a fun and festive event!
