Prayers of the People

Our faith is centered on Christ, who revealed to us the healing touch of God's justice and mercy. We now call on God to continue that same healing and justice in our lives and in our world, saying: Lord, have mercy.

Let us pray for those who choose to make a difference in the lives of others. We pray for our civic leaders and people of influence in business. We pray for the community of St. Andrews as we follow Jesus and believe him to be our Lord and Savior; may we in the giving of ourselves, be the answer to another's prayer. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

We pray for the universal church. Fill it with all truth, where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where in anything it is amiss; reform it. Where it is right, strengthen it; where it is in want, provide for it; where it is divided, reunite it. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

We pray for all whose lives are at risk...for the elderly and the very young...for those who are mentally or physically challenged...for those who are poor, victimized, unemployed, or underemployed. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

We pray for all who are in need of healing...may they find in Christ a source of strength in their time of need. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

We pray for those who cannot discover ways to be of service; may they be challenged in their lives of faith. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

Give St. Andrews an awareness of its gifts and the encouragement to claim its mission. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

We remember before you today those who have died...may they live eternally in the presence of God, where all find comfort and peace. For this we pray: Lord, have mercy.

The Celebrant adds the concluding collect.

Almighty God, we seek your face in our lives. Touch us with your Spirit of justice and healing, through Christ your Son, in whom we pray. Amen.
