Prayers of the People

For the widow and her son, the jar of flour did not go empty, nor did the jug of oil run dry. Through a year of drought, God provided for their needs until the rains came. Mindful of our own hunger and thirst, let us ask God to give us those blessings which will sustain us, saying: Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

We ask that the leaders of this country will build for peace, not war. Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

We ask that the church may continue to offer the bread of life to those who are hungry in spirit, that they may taste the richness of your consolation. Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

We ask that the community of St. Andrews be a sign of your loving generosity, always ready to give to those who have less and to welcome the strangers in our midst. Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all in need of healing or spiritual guidance ...for all who are hungry and have no place to lay their heads...May they find in Christ a source of strength in their time of struggle. Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

On this Veterans Day, we thank you for those who serve in our armed forces...for all who witnessed suffering and came home changed...for all who did not come home...we pray for the safety of our men and women who are currently serving throughout the world... Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

We remember those who have passed into greater life... May they, and all our beloved, live eternally in the presence of God, where all find comfort and peace. Give us this day our daily bread; Lord, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant adds the concluding collect.

Loving God, giver of life, nurture us in body and spirit so that trusting in your mercy, we may generously respond to whatever you ask of us. We pray in the name of Jesus, your Son, who gave his life for our salvation. Amen.
