Prayers of the People

Transfiguration of Our Lord      Year C

Formed by the word and promise of God, let us pray that the merciful glory of God, manifest in all the earth, may drive away all darkness and the God's providence lead all people from death into life, saying: Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the church of Christ, that knowing now only in part it may wait in humility and joy to see your full light, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all priests, that they may speak clearly of your Christ, transfiguring the words of ancient prophets, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For us all as we begin to keep Lent, that your word may transfigure our lives, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the sick... the dying... for those seeking spiritual guidance...for all who have asked for prayer... May your healing light shine through their darkness. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all who have died...for those who mourn the passing of a loved one... for those who died with no one to mourn them... Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the nations of the earth and for their leaders, that they may learn the ways of your peace, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For all those who seek you, not knowing your name, that they will find that your everlasting mercy has enlightened them and called them by name, Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

For the protection of our men and women in harms way; when Abraham left his native land and departed from his people you kept him safe through all his journeys. Protect our soldiers. Be their constant companion and their strength in battle, their refuge in every adversity. Guide them, O Lord, that they may return home safely. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

O God, make the door of this house wide enough to receive all who need human love and fellowship, but narrow enough to shut out all envy, pride, and strife. Make this threshold smooth enough to be no stumbling block to children, or to straying feet, but rugged and strong enough to turn back the tempter's power. God, make the door of this house the gateway to your eternal kingdom. Lord, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

The celebrant adds the concluding collect.

Before you, O God, are all our prayers and all our needs. You are our life and light, our mercy and hope and our ever-dawning day. Hear us through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
