God is just, God is one. But we are often fragmented and consumed by many wants. Let us gather our needs now and offer them confidently and simply to God, our Father, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

For world leaders and all local officials, that they may be just and honorable in their dealings with one another...that they willingly respond to the needs of their people and serve the common good...We pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For peace, a reduction of arms, and an end to war and terrorism, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

That the church, both its leaders and members, be ingenious and tireless in proclaiming the Good News of Jesus Christ, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

That all Christians may hold their goods and money lightly and use them for the sake of God's dominion, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

That all elected officials may respond to the needs of their community and serve the common good, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

That employees and employers may act honestly in their workplaces and treat one another with dignity and respect, we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for our sick...We pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have hurt us...for those who have betrayed us...for those who owe us money...for those who have failed us in any way...for all we need to forgive and all who have forgiven us...we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

We remember those who have died...and for all who are mourning the passing of a loved one and find the autumn season especially hard to bear as they grieve...we pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, you stretched out your arms of love on the hard wood of the cross that everyone might come within the reach of your saving embrace: So cloth us in your Spirit that we, reaching forth our hands in love, may bring those who do not know you to the knowledge and love of you; for the honor of your Name. We pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

The celebrant adds the concluding collect.

Almighty God, we live in this world and look for the world to come. Teach us what to ask for: give us all we need. Make us life-givers with you who build your dominion here, in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

During the administration of the Eucharist,
all baptized Christians are welcome to come forward to receive the Blessed Sacraments.

All persons are welcome to come forward to receive a priestly blessing.

Prayer for the Week

Lord we confess to you that we enjoy thinking of ourselves as basically nice people who are obeying the rules. We come to church to find out the rules. Then we ask for the grace to obey.

That way, we don't need you to save us because we are so successfully saving ourselves, or so we like to think. Remind us each day that we are saved by grace, that we are saved, not because of who we are, but because of who you are. Please, continue to love us sinners.

Your grace is amazing and for your grace, we give you thanks. Amen.
