Prayers of the People

All Saints Year C

Remembering that the saints intercede for us, let us pray, Saints of God, pray for us.

Prophets of the old and new covenants, prophets ancient and modern, prophets of our day...that our ears and our hearts may be open to the Gospel message, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

Apostles and bishops, priests and deacons, all ministers to the people... that our church may continue to be blessed with faithful, dedicated, energetic servants, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

Martyrs and missionaries, true witnesses who persevered despite hardship and persecution...that we may be faithful to our vocation and our promises, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

All men and women of prayer, for this assembly gathered to celebrate the Eucharist in communion with the church in heaven and the world; that nourished by the word of truth, and the bread of life, we may bear witness in our own generation to the timeless gospel of Christ, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

For those in our community who are sick...for loved ones serving in our armed forces...may your life giving Spirit fill them that they and those who love them know, the healing power of your love, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

Almighty God, whose will it is that all should come to you through your Son Jesus Christ: Inspire our witness to him, that all may know the power of his forgiveness and the hope of his resurrection; we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

Ancestors in the faith, men and women who nurtured and formed us, men and women we have known and loved who have gone before us... that we may never forget you and your sacrifices for us, we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

Lord Christ, you have no body on earth but ours, no hands but ours. Ours are the eyes through which your compassion must look out on the world. Ours are the feet by which you may still go about doing good. Ours are the hands with which you bless people now. Bless our minds and bodies that we may be a blessing to others; we cry out, Saints of God, pray for us!

The Celebrant adds the following collect.

Good and gracious God, you call us to holiness. Grant each of us what we need to be the holy men and women you call us to be. We pray always in Jesus' name. Amen.

Prayer for the Week

For all your saints, we give you thanks, O Christ. For those who brought us into the world and taught us how to live here. For those who told us the gospel story, and lived that story before us as our examples. For those wise folk in the church who's lives model the faith. For those in our world who show us how easily it is to wander from the paths of righteousness. For those dear, departed souls for whom we still grieve, those whom we hope to meet at another day, on another shore. For all the saints, thank you! Amen.
