"My God Is In Control"

By Delores J. Newcomb

My God is in control
Over land or rolling sea,
No matter what my circumstance

He watches over me.

My God is in control
His love surrounds his own,
And even in the darkest times
Rest easy; you're not alone.

My God is in control
Though evil's all around
For if you truly seek him,
He can always be found.

My God is in control
He knows each worldly care,
Just trust in him and speak his name,
For he is always there.
So when your doubts and fears
Like sea billows o're you roll,
Just remember when all hope seems gone,
My God is in control.

I recently attended the funeral service for Ms. Delores Newcomb, mother of Ashley Newcomb, mother-in-law to Maria, grandmother of Landen, Abigail and Mary Weston. It was a very moving service which highlighted her poems. Ms. Newcomb published a book of poems and I wanted to share one with you.

In this time of uncertainty for St. Andrew's, it is important for us to remember, "My God Is In Control".

"Lift High the Cross"

A 19th century English Christian hymn.
It was written in 1887 by George Kitchin and revised in 1916 by Michael R. Newbolt.

Kitchin wrote "Lift High the Cross" in 1887, while he was the Church of England Dean of Winchester, for the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. It has been suggested that the hymn was inspired by the story of Constantine the Great's conversion to Christianity after seeing a cross with "In hoc signo vinces" on it. It was intended as a festival hymn and was first performed in Winchester Cathedral. In 1916, Newbolt revised the hymn so that it was in twelve couplets and it was printed in the 1916 Supplement to Hymns Ancient and Modern. In that same revision, "Lift High the Cross" was set to the tune of "Crucifer" by Sydney Nicholson. The hymn is often sung during Lent for Holy Week but is also used as a processional hymn or recessional hymn before or after a church service.

"Lift High the Cross" was first published in the United States in 1974 by Donald Hustad in Hymns for the Living Church and since then has appeared in a number of different hymnals outside England. In 1978 it appeared in the Lutheran Book of Worship, the hymnal for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. In 1982 it appeared in Lutheran Worship, the hymnal for the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. In 1989 the hymn was included in The United Methodist Hymnal, but with a replacement first verse as the original was considered to be too militaristic.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING

Jesus said, "I am the bread of life; he who comes to Me will not hunger, and he who believes in Me will never thirst." John 6:35
