Going Deeper Into God's Word

“As a volunteer for Special Olympics, I was the lane five coach. Two students approached the starting line. The gun went off. The race began. I coached the student in lane five toward me. Suddenly, he slowed down, waiting for his friend. When his friend caught up, they ran together, with matching stride across the finish line.

“We tied! We tied!” They shouted with joy.

In a world where winners are expected, a new world was introduced on the wings of these runners. A world where it is more blessed to run together than to win a race. Blest be the tie. Blessed be the pure in heart. From time to time, we are graced with a glimpse into the world to come. It is coming. It is here.”
